Another pretty wedding of Wednesday was that of Miss Elva Godde and Patrick Sheehan, the event taking place at the Catholic cathedral at 8 o'clock a. m. Miss Gene Kimball acted as bridesmaid and Mr. Dooley of Pioche as best man. A few intimate friends and relatives were present, and after the ceremony the party repaired to the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. C. P. Brooks, where a wedding breakfast was served. The rooms were tastefully decorated with cut flowers and vines and the event was an exceedingly pretty and pleasant one. Mr. and Mrs. Sheehan left on the 3:15 train for a trip to Florida, after which they will reside in Salt Lake. The bride has been a teacher in the Washington school for some time past and the groom is a well known mining man. Both are popular with a large circle of friends who will join in extending good wishes.

LATEST MODE IN GOWNS WITH PRINCESS SKIRT.

Fashion's very latest fad is the princess skirt, extending about five inches above the waist line, thus outlining the figure perfectly. In this model the shaping is produced by many tucks. It will be noticed that the skirt is a full effect, thus veering away from the close style so long worn. The gown is built of pearl gray French broadcloth and trimmed with narrow black velvet ribbon. The yoke, vest and undersleeves are of finely tucked chiffon.

whist prizes were won by Mrs. A. D. Lynn and Mrs. Taylor and the sixty-three prizes went to Mrs. Parker and Mrs. Dewey Richards. Mrs. Lynn carried off the consolation prize. The Opal club found its trip to Provo on the evening of Wednesday, the 17th, to be a very profitable one in every way. Over fifty couples comprised the party, and all expressed themselves as having enjoyed the excursion immensely. The special train over the Short Line arrived at Provo at about 8:30 and immediately the dance took place. There was a large and select attendance. Punch was served in the refreshment room during the evening. Dancing continued until 12:30, when the Opal club party boarded their train and returned to this city. Those who went down on the special train were: Messrs and Mesdames A. F. Angell, C. L. Berry, Kelly, Mullenbrouck, Sam Donelson, Gus Voigt, L. B. Moore, F. W. PARLORS IN ALONZO E. HYDE'S RESIDENCE.

The above cut shows the parlors in the residence of Alonzo E. Hyde, on North Temple street. The rooms are on the west side and are handsomely furnished in light mauve tints with tapestries in pale green. The woodwork in the front parlor is in bird's-eye maple, and that in the rear room of black birch. The mantels are handsomely carved, and the fire place in the front room is tiled with onyx. A pretty feature of this room is the tower window on the southwest, which adds materially in the artistic effect of the interior. A notable feature of the house is the hall, the front entry having a floor of handsome tiles, and the walls and ceiling done in bronze stucco, with art figures in panel effect, representing Spring, on either side. Swing doors of art glass separate the entry from the hall, which extends almost the length of the house. A finely carved staircase is situated at the rear end of the hall, having a spray of electric globes in palm effect capping the newel post, and a stained glass window representing an Egyptian scene, at the first landing. The library and sitting room are on the east side of the house, the woodwork in both being of maple, and both being well lit with large bay windows. The bedrooms and bathroom are upstairs, and are in keeping with the comfort and convenience of the rest of the building.
